PROSPECTUS

PREFACE

All round growth and development of a child is essential for parents' happiness and of utmost importance for prosperity of a nation. A child with moral and cultural values equipped with modern technology is an asset for family, community and the nation as a whole.

AJPS is committed to give excellent & technology based education to every child of the area, so that they are prepared to accept all challenges across the world. Modern communication has turned the whole world as a global village. AJPS has accordingly planned the syllabus for the coming generation.

The school is sincerely concerned to know the impact of the desired system of education. We are Starting of the session 2013-14 from July 2013 from Class I to Class VI. The kids of the first session will be the torch bearers for the extension of the school up to Secondary level today we achieved it.

So let us come together with an objective to create and shape successful and cheerful noble personalities for our pleasure and above all for our mother land.

Come Ahead, Go Forward
